Claim 8 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The terminology "method of claim 0 further wherein" renders claim 8 indefinite. Such terminology as "method of claim 7 wherein" can be used to overcome the rejection.

The claim is also indefinite in that when R2 is H, the starting compound and the final product are the same.

Applicant's arguments filed December 26, 2002 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant contends that claim 8 has been amended to not to include H in defining R2. This argument has not been found persuasive since claim 8 still includes H as defining R2 (claim 8, line 3 after the structural formula).

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of
